SUITESTORY

Created by entrepreneurs
for entrepreneurs

With over 25 years of combined management and marketing experience in the real estate industry, the company was developed to support the progressive movement of the commercial real estate industry towards flexible office space. This includes workspace options such as co-working and hot desking, virtual offices and executive suites. With over 50% of commercial real estate for lease consisting of 2,500 square feet or smaller spaces, the founders of SuiteSearch felt the need to develop a site for building owners and managers to target entrepreneurs, small businesses and Fortune 1000 companies looking to establish satellite offices.

It's all in the details...the property listing details

- 1 Navigate to desired area with ease
- 2 Full contact information for leasing agent/broker
- 3 Easily schedule a tour with one click
- 4 Slideshow of property
- 5 Local area transportation avenues identified
- 6 Ability to access property specials
- 7 Ability to upload documents for download (including floorplans, marketing brochures, applications, etc.)
- 8 Integrated Google Maps
- 9 Detailed property features for quick read

SUITEAUDIENCE

Prospective clients of all different types

Listing only the suite-est deals is easy

With everyone searching for great deals, the expectation has shifted to ensure that companies do not overspend. This site provides a value added service to property owners and managers listing their space by enabling them to promote their best deals. Deals are posted to this section and can be filtered by visitors to the site. In addition, deals are posted to the SuiteSearch Twitter and Facebook feeds to draw even more attention.

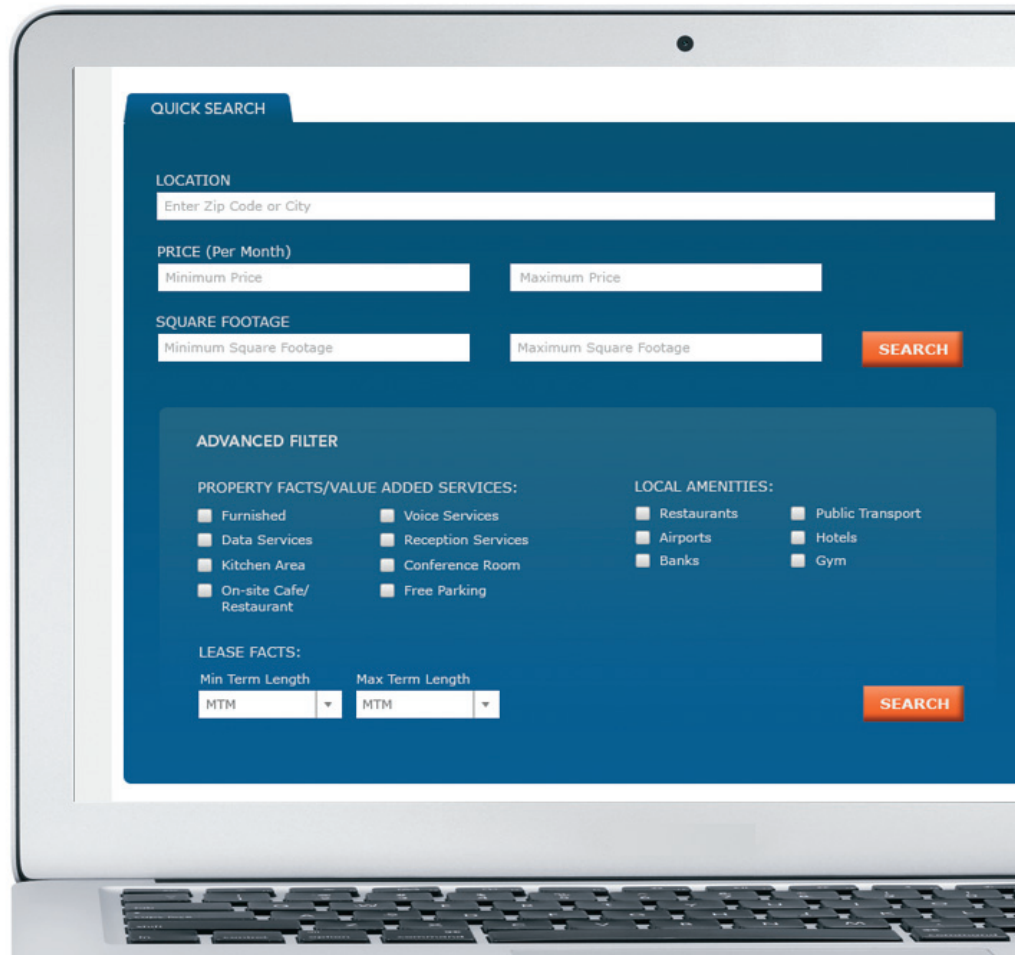

SUITEFEATURES

Advanced search attributes that matter

Cost and square footage are important, but today's small business owner cares about more than that. SuiteSearch.com allows visitors to search for different office types and property features in addition to the availability of value added services.
